ABOUT HALCYON

HALCYON is an independent broking house offering discreet and competitive voice and electronic execution services in a broad range of financial commodity markets, including exchange and OTC traded financial commodity futures, options and swaps. We provide our clients with both an efficient and transparent service.

We act purely as broker; offering only intermediary services and undertaking no proprietary trading which eliminates any potential for conflicts of interest.

Established in 2013, HALCYON has an experienced management team made up of market experts with over 50 years' experience in the financial markets, delivering a professional service in execution and market knowledge.

HALCYON has an international client base; including mining companies, merchants and financial institutions.

MARKETS

London Metal Exchange

HALCYON has established a relationship with a leading broker on the LME, which enables it to provide voice and electronic execution of derivatives listed on the London Metal Exchange. We offer clients the highest level of service across the full range of LME futures and options.

We aim to provide our clients with access to valuable market liquidity using our extensive network.

CME Group

As with the LME, HALCYON provides a full service for CME Group copper futures and options.

Other Markets

HALCYON is actively working on establishing desks covering other markets, including ferrous products, oil, gas and energy.
